THE VINTAGE

Our 2010 Syrah is from Lerner, one of the most recognizable Syrah vineyards in the country. Robert Parker has the highest regard for this vineyard and stated: “If Lerner was in France, it’d be considered Grand Cru.”

THE VINEYARD

Lerner Vineyard is a beautiful, family-run vineyard located at the heart of the best grape-growing region in Santa Barbara; Ballard Canyon in the Santa Ynez Valley. Founders Michael and his wife Christine Lerner live onsite and take great care and pride in the cultivation of their vineyard. They are best known for their 34 acres of Syrah.

THE WINE

Beginning dark and serious with masculine oak and tobacco, it’s seamless tannins open to a round and luscious body. Blackberry velvet gives this vintage a grace from glass to palate. The lingering finish and classical structure make it a seductive balance of strength and finesse and an elegant clash of leather versus lavender.

THE AWARDS

2015 Orange County Wine Society Wine Competition- GOLD, at the largest and most prestigious judging of Californian wines in the World.
